MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET

Book, Music, and Lyrics by
Meredith Willson

Story by Valentine Davies    Original Screenplay by George Seaton

Rediscover the magic of believing that wishes can come true and miracles still happen in one of the best-loved of all Holiday classic tales, "Miracle On 34th Street".

This heartwarming story originally written for the 1940's classic movie of the same name, is brilliantly brought to life in a fully staged musical production.

Featuring the wonderful sound of Meredith Willson's ("The Music Man" & "The Unsinkable Molly Brown") fabulous lyrics and tuneful score including "It's Beginning To Look a Lot Like Christmas" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You", this holiday family plum of a musical is sure to leave every audience believing in love and miracles once again.
